The screenshot shows a software interface for label creation. At the top, there is a toolbar with various icons. The printer icon, which is a small computer with a printer, is circled in red. Below the toolbar is a preview of a label. The label has a dashed border and contains the following text: 'CAPE BRETON FoodHub' (with 'FoodHub' in a larger, bold font), 'Beautiful Hill Farm', 'Date: _____', 'SYDNEY' in large bold letters, two horizontal lines, and at the bottom, 'Frzn' and 'Frdg' each with a checkbox, followed by 'Box ___ of ___'.

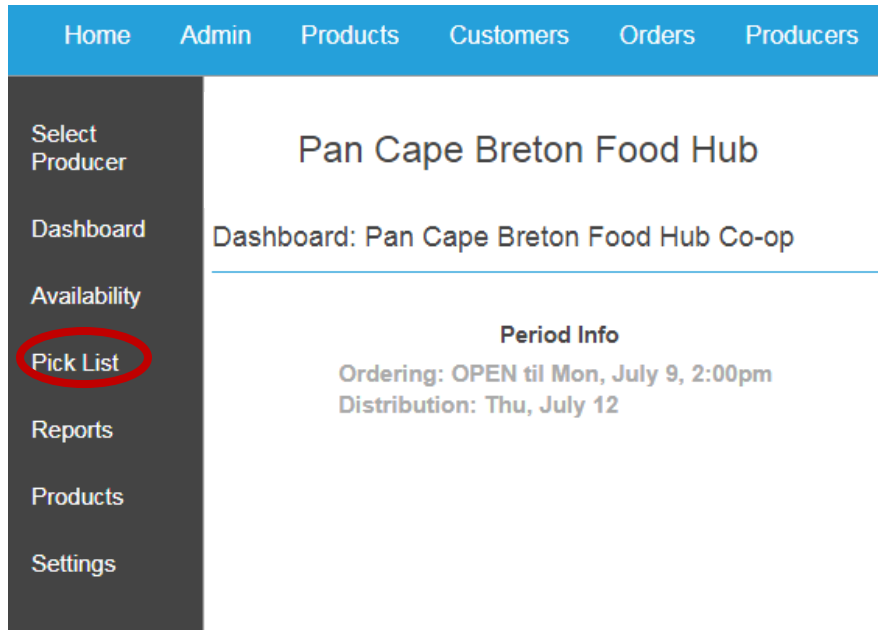

STEP 8: Click "Print".

Note: If you want to print your labels in black and white, select "Black and white" in the color drop-down menu.

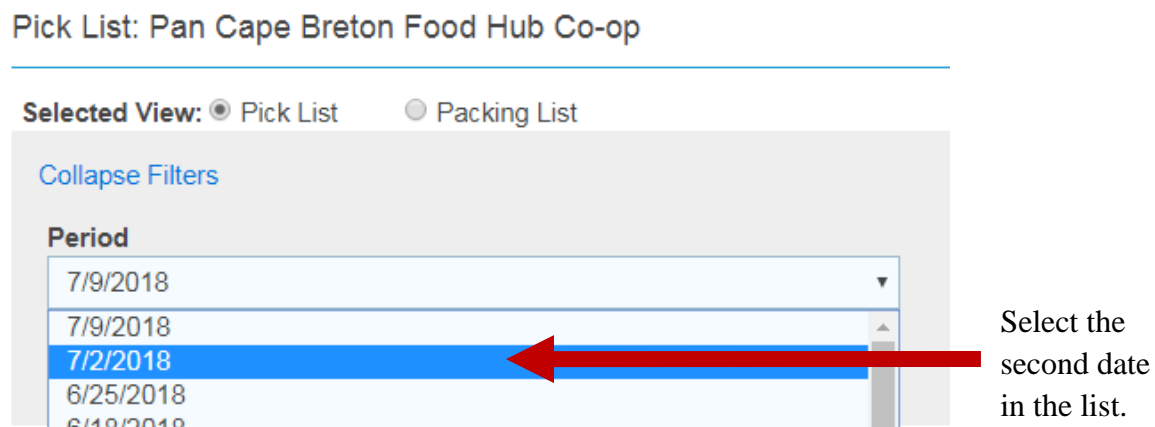

Get pick list

STEP 1. Click "Pick list".

STEP 2: Select the second period in the drop-down menu.

Note: These dates are the period start dates. Each new period starts on Monday, when the order cycle closes. When you are preparing for the current week (after Monday at 2PM and before dropping off on Wednesday), consumers ordered it in the previous period, so you must select the period start date that is the Monday before.

STEP 3: Select "Summary" as the Pick List Format.

Note: If you are pricing individual meat products based on the exact size of each consumer's order, you can select "Detailed" as the Pick List Format.

STEP 4: Use the "Ordered Items Summary by Product" chart to view the total number of each item sold.

In this example, 8 total items were sold.

Ordered Items Summary by Product

Item	Selling Unit	Sold Count	Pick Count	Pay to Producer
Share the Harvest 2017	Each	8	8 Each	$80.00
Total				$80.00

STEP 5: Use the "REGION DISTRIBUTION DETAIL" chart to view how many of each item must be sent to each location. Each location needs its' own box.

In this example, of the 8 total items sold, 2 must be shipped to Baddeck, 1 to Mermaid Catering, 1 to New Waterford, 2 to Sydney, and 2 to Sydney River.

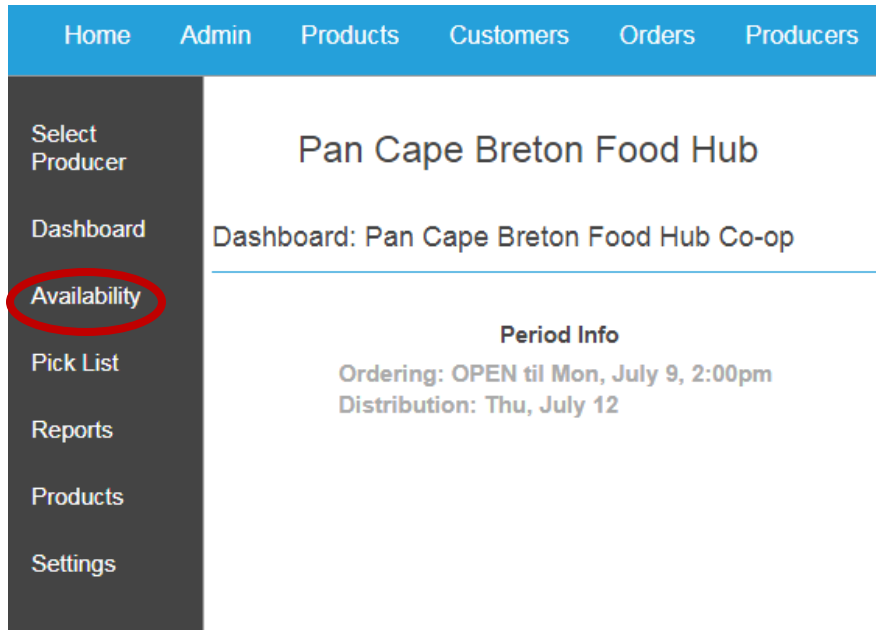

REGION DISTRIBUTION DETAIL

The items below, if any, are to be distributed to a different location. Please package them separately so we can direct them to the proper destination. The items below are included in the summary above, please do not deliver the product below as additional product.

Unlist a product

STEP 1: Click "Availability".

STEP 2: If none of the product has sold yet, click the "-" button to remove the product.

If some of the product has already sold, you will not be able to remove the product completely. However, you can update the quantity available to match the quantity sold. To do this, click on the name of your product. Then, if the quantity sold is 3 (for example), modify the quantity listed to be 3. This will cause your product to be listed as "Sold Out".

Adding more units to a sold out product

STEP 1: Log-in to your account. Your sold out items will be listed at the bottom of the page when you first log-in.

STEP 2: Click on the "quantity listed" for the product that you want to update.

Section 2- Packing Boxes

Tips for packing boxes

- ✓ Designate a certain area or room as the "boxing area".
- ✓ Store all labels, tape, scissors, and boxes in this area.
- ✓ Cut out your labels in advance.
- ✓ Work in a team of two.

How many boxes and labels will you need?

- You will need a separate box for each location. Note that each restaurant is its' own location.
- Each box needs its' own label.
- If you have more than one box for a certain location, each box must be labelled.

Do you need to place each individual product in its' own bag?

- For products such as salad greens and kale that may wilt, please consider placing each item in its' own bag. This will help it last longer in the consumers' fridge.
- If you choose to place multiple items in the same bag, use a label to clearly indicate the number of unique orders contained in the bag.

For example, you could place five cucumbers in a single bag labelled "Five individual orders -1 per consumer".

Do you need to label each individual product?

- For unique or similar products that may be difficult for volunteers to identify, please label at least one item for each location.

Examples:

- Use labels to distinguish between snacking and slicing cucumbers
- Use labels to help volunteers identify herbs.

What do you need to write on the printed labels?

- ✓ The date
- ✓ Mark if the product must stay in the freezer (Frzn) or fridge (Frgd)
- ✓ Indicate the total number of boxes.

If sending one box to a location: Label as "Box 1 of 1"

If sending two boxes to a location: Label as "Box 1 of 2" and
"Box 2 of 2"

Suggested process for efficient packing

Bring all harvested products into your boxing area. Leave a table clear for boxing.

Use the pick-list to gather all items for the first location and place them onto the table.

Place items into plastic bags if necessary. Label products as necessary.

Place all products for the first location into a box. Tape printed label for that location onto box.

Repeat process for each location.

Producer Checklist for Packing Boxes

Date:

✓	Preparing items for boxing
	Inspect products for any quality issues.
	Place products into separate bags as needed.
	Use labels to identify any unique or similar items. Label at least one of these items per location.
	If more than one order is placed in the same bag, clearly indicate this with a label stating "# of total orders- one per consumer".
✓	Boxing
	Make sure the correct items and quantities are packed in each box.
	Use a separate box for each location.
	Use newspaper to protect breakable or fragile products.
✓	Labelling boxes
	Place a label on each box.
	Fill out "Box __ of __" on each label.
	Place date on each label.
	Check off if the box needs to be in the fridge or freezer.
